

LIBERATION WEEKEND

APRIL 19 – 21, 2024

PROGRAMME

Friday, April 19, 2024

4.00 pm Opening of the Meeting Hub
Meeting Hub
The village and life in Flossenbürg have been documented photographically for decades. We invite you to get into conversations through these works, whilst enjoying drinks and appetizers.

Saturday, April 20, 2024

9.30 am – 5.00 pm Open Community Space and Café
Meeting Hub
Networking, gathering information about the weekend or simply resting. Coffee, tea and water are being served free of charge

10.00 am – 4.00 pm Opportunity to visit the DEST building
DESt Building, quarry area
Granite mining in the former concentration camp quarry ended on March 31, 2024. We provide insights into current developments and would like to hear your opinions and thoughts on the future of the site.

10.00 am – 5.00 pm Pop-up Archive
Meeting Hub
Our archival staff will be there for you to discuss your family history, historical questions, objects and documents you have brought with you.

1.00 pm – 3.00 pm Guided Tours
Meeting Point: Entrance Meeting Hub
Guided tours of the former camp site in German and English.

1.00 pm – 2.30 pm Guided Tour: Quarry
Meeting Point: DESt building, quarry area
Tour of the quarry site and DESt building with information and dialogue about the past, present and future of the site.

4.00 pm

Opening of the travelling exhibition “I Deportati del Trasporto 81 Bolzano – Flossenbürg 5-7 Settembre 1944”

Former Detention Barrack

The exhibition was jointly curated by ANED Pavia together with survivors and relatives

Sunday, April 21, 2024

9.30 am – 2.00 pm Open Community Space and Café
Meeting Hub
Networking, gathering information about the weekend or simply resting. Coffee, tea and water are being served free of charge.

10.00 am – 4.00 pm Opportunity to visit the DEST building
DESt Building, quarry area
Granite mining in the former concentration camp quarry ended on March 31, 2024. We provide insights into current developments and would like to hear your opinions and thoughts on the future of the site.

10.00 am – 1.00 pm Pop-up Archive
Meeting Hub
Our archival staff will be there for you to discuss your family history, historical questions, objects and documents you have brought with you.

10.00 am – 12.00 am Guided Tours
Meeting Point: Entrance Meeting Hub
Guided tours of the former camp site in German and English.

10.30 am – 11.30 am Oecumenical Service with commemoration of the dead
Chapel

11.30 am – 12.30 pm Kaddish with Rabbi Goldberg from Hof
Jewish Memorial

2.00 pm – 4.00 pm Commemoration Ceremony
Main Tent on the Former Roll Call Grounds
Commemoration ceremony for the 79th anniversary of the liberation of Flossenbürg Concentration Camp and subsequent wreath-laying ceremony at the memorial site “Valley of Death”.

4.00 pm – 6.00 pm Informal Conclusion of the Liberation Weekend
Meeting Hub
Cake, coffee, tea and water are being served free of charge.